Considering all of your other commitments (school, other volunteer work, part-time job, etc.), are you willing to devote 3-5 hours per week to a PBSC placement (excluding the exam sessions)?

YES NO

All student volunteers must attend our mandatory PBSC General Training Session. In addition, all first year, upper year, and returning volunteers working on research projects must attend the WestlawCanada / La référence Legal Research and Writing training session designed for PBSC. General training will take place on September 27th, room 158, from 12:00pm-1:20pm. The WestlawCanada / La référence Legal Research and Writing training session will take place on October 25th, room 158, from 12:00pm-1:20pm. Lunch will be provided at both sessions.

Are you interested in applying for a Volunteer Project Coordinator Role? Volunteer Project Coordinators (“VCs”) are selected to coordinate our larger placements (three or more students) and allow for greater effectivity in scheduling, delegation, and quality control. They also enhance communication by serving as the primary liaison between the student volunteer group and the organizational contact, the lawyer supervisor, and the program coordinators. VCs take a lead role in preparing the Workplan for the year, ensuring other volunteers are on track and troubleshooting any issues that arise throughout the year. If you are interested in being considered for this role, please indicate so by checking “YES” below.
